

As Catholics, we have the moral responsibility to research candidates, gather relevant information, and make informed decisions in electing our government leaders. To help Nebraska Catholic voters make those decisions, the NCC invited all federal legislative and state legislative candidates on the upcoming ballot to answer questions indicating their support or opposition on just some of those important issues facing our state and nation. Find all candidate survey answers and additional comments at NebraskaCatholicVoter.com.

Please remember to request your early voting ballot by May 1 and vote in the primary election on May 12!
